

AATC Business Notes
Charlotte, NC
October 13, 2006

Taken by India Broyles, Compiled by William Veal

Current Conference:

Hotel is being sold and will turn into condos within a week.

Future Conferences:

Other locations are being researched.

Possible locations are Cincinnati, Cleveland, Austin, and Alexandria

We mainly have an East coast membership and want to keep the conferences on this side of the country.

Journal

Print on demand allows for instantaneous corrections.

We will have 20 articles per volume.

All members should ask their libraries to order this as a book, yet it is a refereed journal.

Please turn in submitted conference papers electronically to the editor.

Please return the reviewer form in the back of the program.

Articles need to be submitted by October 31, 2006.

Anyone interested in being Associate Editor should contact Barbara Stern.

You may develop your own CT&D course packet online. By January 1, 2007 members will be able to have their students enter the website, choose articles and then have the publisher (InfoAge) print the course packet and students pay for packet direct to InfoAge at 20% discount.

Newsletter

There are 4 per year, Nov., Feb., May, and Aug.

Everyone is invited to submit items for printing.

Elections

This was done electronically.

43 valid ballots were returned with initials and SS#

We ask that all emails are updated so that all announcements can reach the membership.

Constitution

May newsletter was explained as to the contents of the new revised and amended constitution. President, William Veal called for a motion to accept the Executive Board's amended items. Jeanne Tunks seconded the motion. There was no discussion. There was an unanimous vote in favor of the amended constitution.

President William Veal will send out a copy of the Constitution to Steve Purcells who will post the new Constitution onto the website.

Book sale is ongoing. View books in other room. Books on sale for $10 Friday after banquet and $5 on Saturday.
